Travel Allowance Policy

Andino Logística S.A. | Document G07 | Date: 2026-05-05

Covered expenses

For business trips the company covers previously approved lodging and a meal allowance capped at UYU 750 per day. Transport is reimbursed against receipts, and the use of a private vehicle is compensated per kilometer according to the table currently in force at Finance.

Prior approval

Every trip must be approved by the area head before booking lodging or tickets. International trips also require authorization from the general management.

Receipts and expense reports

Receipts are uploaded within 5 working days after the trip. Expenses without a receipt are not reimbursed. Receipts must be issued to Andino Logística S.A. and state the purpose.

Non-reimbursable expenses

- Alcoholic beverages.
- Personal expenses unrelated to the trip.
- Traffic fines and unauthorized parking.

Advances

When a trip exceeds 3 days, an advance can be requested from Finance, which is deducted from the later expense report.
